Fatality at Red Dog Operations

Alaska - It is with regret that we report a fatal incident occurred on a production drill at our Red Dog operation in Alaska in the evening of Saturday, January 16, resulting in the death of a 47-year-old employee.

We extend our deepest condolences to the employee's family and friends. Our thoughts are with them and the team at Red Dog at this very difficult time.

No other employees or contractors were injured, and there is no ongoing safety or environmental risk.

All appropriate authorities have been notified and MSHA is conducting an investigation into the incident.
