Teck Named to 2018 Dow Jones Sustainability World Index

Vancouver, B.C. – For the ninth straight year, Teck Resources Limited (TSX: TECK.A and TECK.B, NYSE: TECK) (“Teck”) has been named to the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index (DJSI), indicating that Teck’s sustainability practices are in the top 10 percent of the 2,500 largest companies in the S&P Global Broad Market Index (BMI).

“Our commitment to responsible resource development is core to who we are as a company and is central to everything we do,” said Don Lindsay, President and CEO, Teck. “Our sustainability performance starts with our people, who take pride in maintaining a strong culture of health and safety, responsible environmental management, and strengthening local communities.”

Teck was named to the World and North American Index based on an in-depth analysis of economic, social and environmental performance. Teck scored the highest in the industry in talent attraction and retention, materiality, supply chain management, and environmental policy and management systems.

Dow Jones contracts RobecoSAM, an investment specialist focused on sustainability investing, to compile the DJSI. The DJSI tracks the performance of global sustainability leaders, through an annual assessment of the world’s 2,500 largest public companies. Among other factors, it measures management practices surrounding economic, environmental and social criteria. For more information on the DJSI, go to <http://www.sustainability-indexes.com/>.
