Teck Declares $0.625 per Share Dividend and Authorizes up to $250 Million Share Buyback

Vancouver, B.C. – Teck Resources Limited (TSX: TECK.A and TECK.B, NYSE: TECK) (“Teck”) announced today that its Board of Directors has declared an eligible dividend of $0.625 on its outstanding Class A common shares and Class B subordinate voting shares, consisting of a base dividend of $0.125 per share and a supplemental dividend of $0.50 per share, to be paid on March 31, 2023, to shareholders of record at the close of business on March 15, 2023.

In addition to the dividend, the Board has authorized management to purchase up to $250 million of Class B subordinate voting shares. Additional buybacks will be considered regularly in the context of market conditions.

Teck’s capital allocation framework contemplates that a minimum of 30% of Available Cash Flow will be used for distributions to shareholders and share repurchases. The dividend and planned share repurchases announced today are in addition to $1.9 billion in aggregate of dividends and Class B subordinate voting share repurchases in 2022, and reflect the final financial results for 2022 and a distribution in respect of 40% of the Fort Hills proceeds received in February 2023 in accordance with the capital allocation framework.

All share repurchases are expected to be made in accordance with Teck’s previously announced normal course issuer bid program, or any renewal thereof, or by such other means as may be permitted under applicable securities laws. The current program authorizes Teck to purchase up to 40 million Class B subordinate voting shares through the period ending November 1, 2023. Any repurchases following that date may depend on regulatory approval of a renewed normal course issuer bid program. Teck intends to purchase shares opportunistically. The company will determine the timing of any purchases and may repurchase fewer or a greater number of shares, subject to the requirements of the issuer bid program and applicable securities laws.
