Management’s responsibility

Management is responsible for preparation of the selected subject matter in accordance with the Global Report Standards (GRI Standards) and management’s internally developed criteria referenced in the above table (together, the criteria). Management is also responsible for such internal control as management determines necessary to enable the preparation of the selected subject matter that is free from material misstatement.

Our responsibility

Our responsibility is to express limited assurance conclusion on the selected subject matter based on the evidence we have obtained. We conducted our limited assurance engagement in accordance with the International Standards on Assurance Engagements (ISAE) 3000, Attestation Engagements Other Than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information. This standard requires us to conclude whether anything has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the selected subject matter is not fairly stated, in all material respects.

A limited assurance engagement involves performing procedures (primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and other within the entity, as appropriate, and applying analytical procedures) and evaluating the evidence obtained. The procedures are selected based on our professional judgment, which includes identifying areas where the risks of material misstatement in preparing the selected subject matter in accordance with the criteria are likely to arise.

The procedures performed in a limited assurance engagement vary in nature and timing from, and are less in extent than for a reasonable assurance engagement and, consequently, the level of assurance obtained is substantially lower than the assurance that would have been obtained had a reasonable assurance engagement been performed.

Our independence and quality control

We have complied with the relevant rules of professional conduct/code of ethics applicable to the practice of public accounting and related to assurance engagements, issued by various professional accounting bodies, which are founded on fundamental principles of integrity, objectivity, professional competence and due care, confidentiality and professional behavior.

The firm applies Canadian Standard on Quality Control 1, Quality Control for Firms that Perform Audits and Reviews of Financial Statements, and Other Assurance Engagements and, accordingly, maintains a comprehensive system of quality control, including documented policies and procedures regarding compliance with ethical requirements, professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Conclusion

Based on the procedures we have performed and the evidence we have obtained, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that Teck Resources Limited's selected subject matter prepared in accordance with the criteria during the year ended December 31, 2019, is not fairly stated, in all material respects.

Purpose of statement and restriction of use and distribution

The selected subject matter has been prepared to assist the Board of Directors and management of Teck. As a result, the selected subject matter may not be suitable for another purpose.

Our report was developed in accordance with our engagement letter with Teck Resources Limited and is subject to the terms and conditions included therein. It is solely for the use and benefit of and pursuant to a client relationship exclusively with Teck Resources Limited.
