Hon. Mélanie Joly
Minister of Industry
Innovation, Science and Economic Development Canada
C.D. Howe Building,
235 Queen Street
Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0H5

Dear Minister Joly,

At Indspire, we are honoured to affirm our deep commitment to Teck Resources Limited, a long-standing and vital partner of Indspire.

Indspire is a national Indigenous charity that invests in the education of First Nations, Inuit, and Métis people for the long-term benefit of individuals, their families, their communities, and Canada as a whole.

For more than a decade, Teck has been one of our most dedicated corporate partners, standing with us to create meaningful change through education. Their support has enabled Indigenous learners to pursue their studies, graduate, and move forward into rewarding careers — achievements that ripple outward into stronger families, healthier communities, and a more prosperous Canada.

Teck's commitment goes beyond philanthropy; it reflects genuine leadership in reconciliation. By investing in Indigenous education, Teck plays an essential role in addressing systemic barriers, advancing workforce development, and building bridges between Indigenous and non-Indigenous communities. Their partnership with Indspire demonstrates how companies can meaningfully contribute to reconciliation while helping to shape the inclusive economy our country aspires to.

Sincerely,

Mike DeGagné
