Teck Donates to Agencies Supporting B.C. Wildfire Relief Efforts

Logan Lake, B.C. – Teck is donating up to $75,000 to various agencies to support emergency relief efforts for local communities affected by the wildfires in the British Columbia Interior. This includes $50,000 in donations to agencies providing relief services and up to $25,000 to match donations made by Teck employees.

“Our thoughts are with all those impacted by the wildfires in communities throughout the Thompson Nicola Region,” said Greg Brouwer, General Manager, Teck Highland Valley Copper Operations. “We will continue to identify opportunities where we can offer support to local communities during this incredibly difficult time.”

Agencies supported through Teck’s donation include:

- Ashcroft Food Bank
- Kamloops Food Bank
- Lytton Food Bank
- Merritt Food Bank
- Canadian Disaster Animal Response Team
- SPCA
- The Red Cross
- The United Way

Updates regarding the current wildfire situation can be found online through the BC Wildfire Service at <http://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/safety/wildfire-status>.
